New York County Lawyers Association New Home of Law
at 28 Liberty Street to be Established Early 2020
New York Attorney General Approved NYCLA 14 Vesey Street Sale

July 9, 2019 – New York, New York The New York County Lawyers Association (NYCLA) announced today that the New York State Attorney General has approved the terms of the sale of their building at 14 Vesey Street. The date for relocating to NYCLA's new Home of Law at 28 Liberty Street has yet to be established but is expected to be early next year. NYCLA will continue to support its Members with innovative events, CLE programs, library resources including Westlaw, and the complimentary use of meeting rooms to meet with clients at the Vesey Street location without interruption in services to Members.

“We are on track with our plan to move into our new space in early 2020, which will offer our Members amenities such as technology-enabled conference rooms, wi-fi and other enhanced services. Steps away from our current location and the courts, our new Home of Law will provide our Members with a space designed specifically for the way that attorneys work today and ensure the continued future of our organization,” said NYCLA's President Stephen C. Lessard.

Formerly known as One Chase Manhattan Plaza, 28 Liberty had an infusion of over $150 Million in capital upgrades and is located conveniently near the courts and only a few blocks from its current location. 28 Liberty is easily accessed by downtown's new Fulton Street Station.

About the New York County Lawyers Association

The New York County Lawyers Association (www.nycla.org) was founded in 1908 as one of the first major bar associations in the country that admitted members without regard to race, ethnicity, religion or gender. Since its inception, it has pioneered some of the most far-reaching and tangible reforms in American jurisprudence. For more information on NYCLA please visit nycla.org
